Form 1

Personal Coping Map

Identify current coping patterns and whether they help or maintain the difficulty.

What this form is for

To support practical coping and behavior change in daily life, relationships, habits, and routines.

How to use it

Choose one difficulty and define one small action. The goal is practice and learning, not perfect change.

How possible does one small change feel right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----

Current pattern

What usually happens?

What do I do automatically?

What do I avoid or postpone?

Cost and benefit

What does this pattern give me in the short term?

What does it cost me later?

What need is it trying to meet?

Alternative action

What is one smaller, healthier alternative?

When can I try it?

What would make it easier?

Review

What happened when I tried?

What did I learn?

What adjustment should I make next?

Practice suggestion

Choose the smallest version of the new behavior and practice it once this week.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.
