

Strengths & Resilience Workbook

A full workbook for strengths, resources, self-efficacy, hope, identity, and resilience factors.

Designed to illuminate the client's existing capacities and increase confidence throughout treatment.

Contents

1. Personal Strengths Map

2. Past Successes as Resources

3. Values as a Therapeutic Anchor

4. Support Network and Resources

5. Self-Efficacy

6. Strengthening Inner Voice

7. Strengths in Relationships

8. Resilience Under Stress

9. Realistic Hope

10. Identity Beyond the Difficulty

11. Using Strengths in Therapy

Reminder

These workbooks are for self-reflection, therapeutic practice, and continued work between sessions. They are not a substitute for professional care, diagnosis, or medical advice.

Form 1

Personal Strengths Map

Identify strengths, abilities, and qualities that already exist.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 2

Past Successes as Resources

Learn from previous moments of coping or progress.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

☐ 0 ☐ 1 ☐ 2 ☐ 3 ☐ 4 ☐ 5 ☐ 6 ☐ 7 ☐ 8 ☐ 9 ☐ 10

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 3

Values as a Therapeutic Anchor

Use values to guide decisions and goals.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 4

Support Network and Resources

Map people, places, actions, and tools that support resilience.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 5

Self-Efficacy

Build belief in the ability to influence small next steps.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 6

Strengthening Inner Voice

Create inner language that supports effort and courage.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 7

Strengths in Relationships

Notice interpersonal strengths and supportive connections.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 8

Resilience Under Stress

Plan how to return to balance during pressure.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 9

Realistic Hope

Build hope that rests on action, resources, and evidence.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 10

Identity Beyond the Difficulty

Separate the person from the problem.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.

Form 11

Using Strengths in Therapy

Turn identified strengths into a practical treatment support plan.

What this form is for

To highlight strengths and resilience factors that can support the whole therapeutic process.

How to use it

Answer gently. Strengths may be small, quiet, or easier for others to see than for you to see.

How connected do I feel to my strengths right now?

Before writing, rate from 0 (low) to 10 (very strong):

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----

Strength or resource

What strength, value, or resource is present?

Where has it appeared before?

Who might recognize it in me?

How it helps

How can this strength support coping?

What does it make possible?

When might I forget it?

Using it in practice

Where can I use it this week?

What reminder would help?

Who or what can support this?

Reflection

What did I notice when I used this strength?

What felt different, even slightly?

How can it support treatment?

Practice suggestion

Choose one strength and intentionally use it once this week in a small realistic way.

Reminder

This workbook is for self-reflection and practice. It is not a substitute for professional care.