

5.1

My Calm Tools

I can use calm tools when I feel upset or worried.

1 Which calm tools can you use? Check all that help you.

Deep breaths

☐

Count slowly

☐

Stretch

☐

Drink water

☐

Take a break

☐

Talk to someone

☐

2 My favorite calm tool is:

I can use calm tools to feel better!

5.2

When I Feel Overwhelmed

It's okay to feel overwhelmed. I can pause and use my calm plan.

1 What might I feel when I'm overwhelmed? Check ✓.

Worried

☐

Angry

☐

Tired

☐

Sad

☐

All of these

☐

2 What can I do to help? Choose or write a tool from page 5.1.

Tool #1

Tool #2

Tool #3

I can take a calm break!

I can pause. I can use my tools. I can feel better.

My Feeling Thermometer

I can notice how strong my feelings are.

- 1 Color the thermometer to show how strong you feel right now.

5 Very strong

4 Strong

3 Medium

2 Mild

1 Very mild

- 2 What feeling is this?

- 3 What can help a little right now?

Take deep breaths

Get a drink

Talk to someone

Do a calm tool

Other: _____

Feelings go up and down. I can handle this.

Calm Plan: Before I Get Too Upset

A plan helps me take care of myself.

- 1 What are early signs I'm getting upset? Check ✓.

My heart beats fast

Tight muscles

I feel restless

I feel worried

I get quiet

Other:

- 2 What will I do first? Choose or write.

Blank area for writing a response to question 2.

I will use my calm plan early!

I can plan ahead. I can take care of me.

5.5

My Calm Corner

I can make a safe and calm space.

1 What can be in my calm corner? Check ✓ what you like.

Pillow

Stuffed animal

Book

Fidgets

Headphones

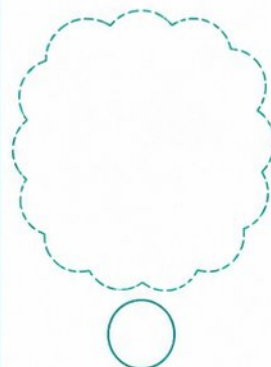

Blanket

Drawing supplies

Other: _____

2 I will use my calm corner when _____.

My calm corner helps me feel safe and better.

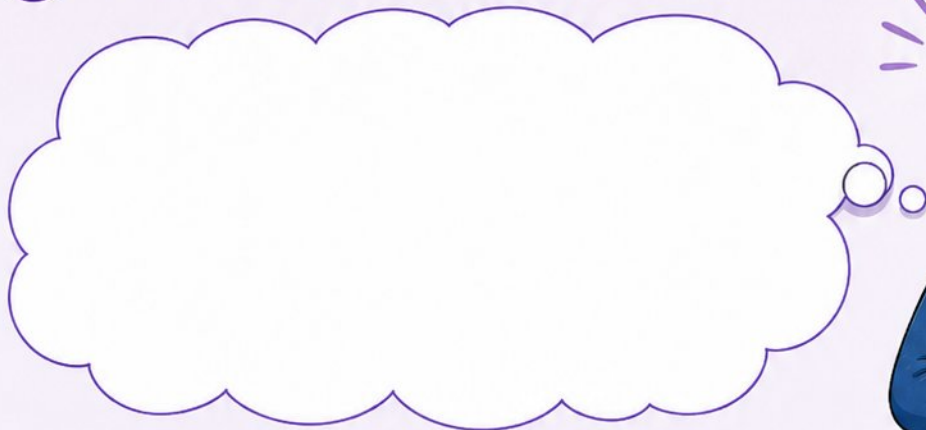

5.6

My Calm Plan

I can use my plan when I need it.

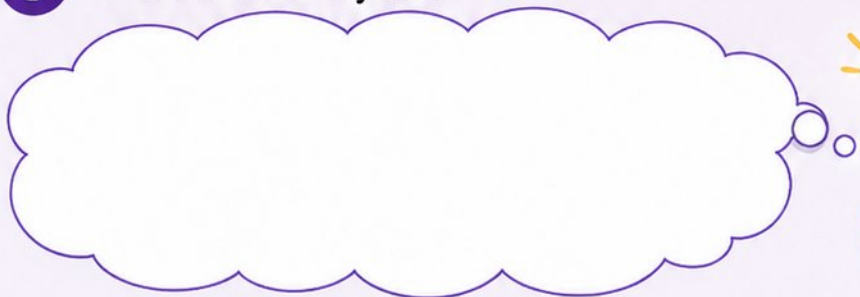

1 When I feel overwhelmed, I can notice:

2 My first calm tool will be:

3 I can remind myself:

I have a plan. I can use it. I can feel better!

