

3.2.1

How to Join a Game

I can watch, ask kindly, and join in.

1 What can I do first?

Watch the game

Stand nearby calmly

Notice the rules

Wait for a good moment

2 Helpful words I can say

Can I play too?

Can I join the next turn?

What do I need to do?

Can you show me how?

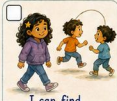

3 If they say 'not yet'

I can wait

I can ask later

I can find another game

I can stay calm

4 My join-in plan

5 My brave joining reminder

Kind words help

I can try again

Joining takes practice

I can join in a kind way.

How to Ask for a Turn

I can wait, ask, and take turns.

1 When I want a turn

Wait with a calm body

Watch whose turn it is

Keep my hands to myself

Stand nearby
or raise my hand

2 Words I can use

Can I have a turn next?

When you're done, can I try?

Please tell me
when it is my turn

Thank you for sharing

3 Good turn-taking choices

Wait patiently

Use a timer

Say thank you

Pass it on

4 If waiting feels hard

Take a breath

Count slowly

Squeeze my hands gently

Ask for help

5 My turn-taking goal

Taking turns helps everyone have fun.

3.2.3

How to Solve an Argument ★

I can stop, talk, and find a solution.

1 First I calm down

Stop and breathe

Use a calm voice

Listen

Keep my body safe

2 I can say

I didn't like that

I felt upset when...

Can we fix it?

Let's try again

3 Ways to solve it

Take turns

Share

Say sorry

Get help

4 What helps arguments get smaller?

Listening

Kind words

Compromise

Adult help

5 My solution plan

Problems can get smaller when we talk kindly.

How to Say No

I can say no in a calm and clear way.

1 Times I might say no

I don't want that game

It feels too rough

I need space

I'm not ready

2 Safe words I can use

No, thank you

I don't want that

Please stop

I need space

3 My body can help too

Stand tall

Look at the person

Use a calm face

Move away

4 If no is not enough

Walk away

Stay with a friend

Tell an adult

Go to a safe place

5 My no sentence for today

My voice matters!

I can keep my body and feelings safe.

Understanding Social Clues

I can look, listen, and notice clues.

1 Face clues

Smiling face

Frowning face

Surprised face

Worried face

2 Body clues

Leaning in

Turning away

Waiting quietly

Crossed arms

3 Voice clues

Quiet voice

Loud voice

Kind voice

Upset voice

4 What can I do?

Ask kindly

Give space

Lower my voice

Wait and watch

5 A clue I noticed today

Social clues can help me know what to do next.

Being a Good Friend

Small kind actions help friendships grow.

1 Good friend choices

Share

Listen

Include others

Help

2 Friendly words

Do you want to play?

Are you okay?

Good job!

Let's do it together

3 Good friends in hard moments

Wait

Forgive

Tell the truth kindly

Get help

4 My friendship strengths

Kind

Fun

Helpful

Loyal

5 My friendship plan

Friendships grow with kindness and practice.

When I Am Not Included

I can handle left-out feelings and choose a next step.

1 How I might feel

Sad

Mad

Lonely

Confused

2 Helpful thoughts

I can try again later

This is hard, but I am okay

I can find someone else

I can ask for help

3 Helpful actions

Join another activity

Ask to play later

Stay with a kind person

Talk to an adult

4 Who can help me?

Family

Friend

Teacher

Me

5 My next step when I feel left out

Left-out feelings can pass, and I can choose a kind next step.

Making Things Better After I Hurt Someone

I can notice, say sorry, and make it better.

1 What happened?

I said something mean

I grabbed

I left someone out

I broke a rule

2 Repair words

I am sorry

Are you okay?

How can I help?

I will try again

3 Repair actions

Give space

Help fix it

Make a kind note

Do better next time

4 Repair can feel

Brave

Caring

Learning

Responsible

5 My repair plan

What will I do next time to make things better?

Repair helps people and friendships heal.

My Short Conversation Plan

I can start, keep going, and finish kindly.

1 Conversation starters

Hi!

Can I sit here?

What are you playing?

Do you like...?

2 Keep it going

Ask a question

Listen

Take turns talking

Make a comment

3 Ending kindly

Bye!

See you later!

Thanks for talking with me

Let's talk again

4 My conversation steps

1 Start

2 Keep going

3 End kindly

5 My conversation plan for today

Small conversations can help me connect.

3.2.10

My Social Skills Card

 I can carry my social skills with me.

1 Skills that help me

Ask kindly

Wait

Listen

Say no

Solve problems

2 People who help me practice

Family

Friends

Teacher

Coach or other adult

3 My go-to sentence

4 What helps me remember?

Kind words

Practice

My brave body

Trying again

5 My Social Skills Card

I can be kind.
I can be brave.
I can listen.
I can try again.
I can connect.

My social skills can grow every day.

