

What Would I Say to a Friend?

Sometimes it is easier to see a situation kindly when we think about someone else. We can use that for ourselves too.

2. What was my friend telling me?

Which thought or feeling would my friend bring me?

They are judging me

I won't succeed

Something is wrong with me

I'm disappointing

I'm under pressure

What my friend would say:

1. What happened?

Mark the situation that came up.

At school

☐

With friends

☐

Online / phone

☐

At home

☐

In my body

☐

☐

The situation in short:

Example

One mistake does not decide who you are

It is okay to feel pressure and still try

3. What would I want to say to them?

Let's write a supportive and compassionate response.

My response:

4. How is this true for me too?

What in that sentence is also right for me?

I do not have to be perfect

It is okay for me to make mistakes

There is strength in me too

I can try again

What do I take from this?

5. The sentence I want to say to myself too

Choose one sentence to take with me.

My sentence:

Thought Reminder

Very often it is easier for me to be kind and fair to a friend. I can also learn to speak this way to myself.
