

What Triggered Me?

Sometimes a small thing can trigger big feelings.

Let's figure out what happened, what I thought, and how I reacted.

2. What was the trigger?

Circle how the situation happened.

Something was said

A situation

A thought

Body sensation

Somewhere

Something I saw

A memory

Tech / phone

Something else

How intense was this trigger?

(10 = very strong, 0 = not at all)

1. What happened before the feeling?

Other: _____

3. What went through my mind?

When something happened, a thought came to mind. Write that main thought.

Examples:

They probably didn't like me.

They will think I'm not good enough.

My thought was: _____

5. What did I do because of the feeling?

I didn't have to react this way.
I could have chosen differently.

Check what's true

Express the feeling

Take a break

Write it down

Talk to someone

Share with someone

Do something that helps

React differently

Next time I can try: _____

4. How did I react?

Circle how I reacted in that moment.

I held it in

I acted out

I wanted to run away

I shut down

I felt all over and lost control

I felt frozen

Other: _____

IMPORTANT REMINDER:

Not everything that triggers me is my fault.

When I understand what happened,
I can choose a better response next time.
